BIG CROWD AT THE RACES

Over Twenty-five Hundred People Witnessed the Sport at the Island.

M'CARREN SPRUNG A SURPRISE

Randover Was Backed by His Owner at Long Odds and Carried the Money Safely Home. -Burgeon Was Another Outsider to Score, the Other Events Being Won by Favorites.

Hugh McCarron, jr., sprung a surprise on the public in the second race at Alexander Island vesterday in Handover, who was beavily backed by his owner, as good as 10 to I being gotten for the money. At post time 4 to 1 was the best price obtainable. Handover won by two lengths, with Jockey Parsons riding for his life and not sparing the whip or spur. Surgeon was the other outsider to win, Cotton's colt getting the decision in a driving finish by a neck from May Howard. The latter was touted all over the ring as a cinch, but Murphy just failed to land the purse. The favorites won the other

Over 2,500 people were in attendance, and nine books accommodated those speculatively inclined. It was stated more money was wagered than on any previous day of the ing. Summaries:

LARCHMONT WAS KILLED!

Miller's Well-known Borse Met His Death

on the Long Bridge. F. T. Miller's campaigner, Larelmont, was killed yesterday morning while being taken across the Long Bridge to the race track, where he was entered in the third race. He was in charge of William Anderson, and just as the draw was reached three brick carts approached with the drivers racing. Larch-processes who he diverse results. Laced-ment was struck in the side by the shaft of one of the carts, the sharp wood penetrating fifteen inches, and death soon resulted. Lanchmont was the last of Longfellow's get, he being by that famous sire out of May Day. He was eight years old, and held the Alexander Island track record for one mile and a furiong of 155. The curvass was re-moved to the Benning's race course and there buried.

THE DEAF MAY HEAR.

Strange Case of a Boy Who Was Nine Years a Sufferer.

More Surprising Examples of the Wonderful Cures Effected by Dr. Walker.

An example of Dr. Walker's success in curof long standing is related by the family of Henry Es-linger, of West Washing-ton. Mr. Eslinger's only son, Harry, was for nine years almost totally deaf, years amost rounty dear, and to-day he hears as well as any one. "When Harry was five years old," said his elder sis-ter, Miss Gertrude Es-海原 Hnger, "he almost died of diphtheria. The in-deafness increased, and during the next eight nine years we constantly tried different physicians to see if we could not find some one to cure him, but never succeeded. When at last we heard of Dr. Walker, the speculist, we took Harry to him. Dr. Walker told us the deafness was due to chronic entarrh of the throat and cars, and could be cured. the turnat and care, and could be cured. Harry was at once placed under treatment, and the result was astonishing. In two months he could hear almost as well as I can, and he has continued to improve until now his hearing is fully restored, his catarrhall gone, and his general health better than ever

Mr. A. J. Hepburn, of Allegheny City, Pa., writes: "Dr. Walker cured me of a disfiguring cruption on the face that had continued for twelve years. I had tried many other doctors and medicines without getting the

Thus hundreds are bearing witness to Dr. Walker's unvarying success in the treatment of all disorders of the brain and nervous sys-tem, diseases of the skin and blood, catarrh, asthma, consumption, rheumatism, malaria, dyspepsia, neuralgia, hemorrhotds, diseases of women, sexual weakness, and all affections of the lungs, throat, heart, liver, stomach, kidneys, bladder, and other organs. Young or middle-axed men suffering from the results of their own follies, vices, or excesses. or those about to marry, who are conscious of any impediments or disqualifications, should consult Dr. Walker. To reach and re-claim such unfortunates has been one of his aims, and he has been the means of restoring hundreds to health, strength, and happines Dr. Walker may be consulted, free of charge, either personally or by letter. His offices at 1411 Pennsylvania avenue, adjoining Willards Hotel, are open daily for consultation and treatment. Office hours, 10 a. m.
